

For Immediate Release: Thursday, April 4, 2019

11th Annual Calgary Music Collectors Show Tops 100 Vendors for Spring Sale

Rare and obscure progressive rock, punk, soul, new wave and more to headline sale

Calgary, AB – The 11th annual Calgary Music Collectors Show returns Sunday, May 5, 2019, at Acadia Recreation Centre (240 90 Ave SE) from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., with early access offered – at additional cost – between 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. The semi-annual spring show consistently features one of the largest selections of new and used music, collectibles and music memorabilia in western Canada. The 11th spring show will welcome more than 100 vendors providing a wide array of music on vinyl, compact disc and cassette tape, as well as music memorabilia and collectibles, vintage Hi-Fi equipment, and more.

The spring 2019 show will welcome vendors from across Alberta – and beyond – including: Daaren Boreham, specializing in soul and new wave, mod revival and punk; Tom Misco, an avid collector of progressive and German rock who will bring more than 400 imported albums and obscure CDs to the show; Chris Walters, from Edmonton, who brings a broad collection of affordably-priced '70s and '80s rock; and Mike Molly, a Lethbridge-based collector of psych rock, lo-fi and contemporary indie music.

Regular admission between 11:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. is just $5 per person and free for children 12 and under. Eager audiophiles can take advantage of priority admission during the First Choice Collectors Hour between 9:30 and 11:00 a.m., for $10 per person.

"I'm thrilled to welcome so many new and returning vendors and patrons to the 11th annual Calgary Music Collectors Show – many look forward to this gathering all year and our team works tirelessly to ensure we put on the best show, offering the best selection, we possibly can," says Mark Corner, founder and organizer. "With more than 100 vendors registered to take part this spring, it promises to be an exciting year for vinyl and music enthusiasts in Calgary."

The spring 2019 Calgary Music Collectors Show takes place Sunday, May 6 at Acadia Recreation Centre (240 90 Ave SE) from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., with early access offered between 10:00 and 11:00 a.m. at additional cost. Regular admission between 11:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. is just $5 and free for those 12 and under.

- 30 -

About the Calgary Music Collectors Show

Founded in 2008 by Mark Corner, the Calgary Music Collectors Show began as an annual event but quickly grew to a semi-annual show to keep up with demand. Organized and run by a team of local music enthusiasts who are passionate about growing a network of Albertans interested in all aspects of music collecting across a wide range of musical eras and genres, the Calgary Music Collectors Show is southern Alberta's premiere event for buying, selling and trading rare, vintage and collectible vinyl, and music memorabilia. For more information, please visit: ycmusicshow.com

For media information and interview requests CONTACT:

Shannon McClennan-Taylor, Publicist
(403) 399-5781 shannon@poeticcommunications.com