Calgary Music Collectors Show Welcomes Music Lovers to Fall Gathering

Semi-annual sale promises huge selection of new and used music on vinyl, cassette, CD

Calgary, AB – The Calgary Music Collectors Show returns for its tenth semi-annual fall event on Sunday, October 21, 2018, at Acadia Recreation Centre (240 90 Ave SE) from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., with early access offered – at additional cost – between 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. The fall Calgary Music Collectors Show boasts the largest selection of new and used music on vinyl, cassette and CD, collectables and memorabilia in the prairies. Featuring more than 60 vendors from across the province, the fall 2018 Show includes vendors Doug Irvine, marketing an extensive collection of 45s; Ian McCallum, who specializes in Jazz, RnB, Soul, and rare and hard-to-find punk and hard rock titles; and a host of others offering up a broad selection of musical styles and genres to suite any and all tastes.

The semi-annual fall Show continues to attract hundreds of collectors, including seasoned vinylphiles and those who are just now discovering the hobby, with more than 600 in attendance at the spring Show in May 2018.

Priority admission is $10 per person during the First Choice Collectors Hour between 9:30 and 11:00 a.m., with general admission after 11:00 just $5 per person and free for children 12 and under.

“With each passing year, I’m continually amazed by the number of new and familiar faces coming out to spend their time – often all day – searching for the music they love,” says Mark Corner, founder and organizer of the Calgary Music Collectors Show. “The scene in Calgary, particularly for vinyl enthusiasts, continues to grow, and now in our tenth year, it’s so rewarding to bring this show to life each spring and fall.”

The fall 2018 Calgary Music Collectors Show takes place Sunday, October 21 at Acadia Recreation Centre (240 90 Ave SE) from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., with early access offered between 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. at additional cost. Regular admission between 11:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. is just $5 and free for those 12 and under.
